Office 4318 TUR; Tel: 294-2827; E-MAIL: reid@ufl.edu

The seminar will critically survey James Baldwin's literary work and political essays, as well as review selected biographies that explore Baldwin's life in the United States, France, and Turkey. Baldwin was engaged in the socio-political world that surrounded and sometimes consumed his artistic and moral energies that brought him to become active in the U.S. Civil Rights movement and international concern the construction of nation, race, and sexuality. One critic wrote of Baldwin in these words: "Following publication of Notes of a Native Son and The Fire Next Time, James Baldwin's literary star approached its peak during the turbulent 1960s. His burgeoning role as celebrity, prophet, and leader heaped an unsustainable amount of pressure and responsibility onto his slight frame in an American landscape that doubly punished Baldwin for being both black and gay, and he often turned to Turkey for sanctuary." This seminar reveals the artistry, compassion, and moral commitment of one of America's greatest writers.

II. COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1) Pop Quizzes on weekly readings as well as film(s) screened in the previous class 30 points (1pt - 3pts each)

2) Individual 5-minute oral presentation and 5-min Q&A. Instructor assigns each student their oral presentation of a required reading Due Weeks 3-11 20 points

The assigned reading will be graded on the following criteria:

A. The importance of the material presented to the class. Students must make brief references to primary scenes in a particular literary work (or film) to illustrate important issues as well as to support their argument.

B. The clarity of the written and oral work. Here, "clarity" refers to smooth oral delivery, correct use of descriptive terminology and grammar.

C. The student's ability to pose important questions to the class during their oral presentation. Students must introduce the argument/thesis of their oral presentation based on their assigned section.

3) 1-page outline Each Student is responsible for a typed outline of their 5-minute discussion. 10 points
Due on the day when the student presents her/his 5-minute discussion

4) MIDTERM EXAM 60MINS WEDNESDAY, 24 FEBRUARY 20 points

5) Individual Groups 1 - 8 PAPER & PRESENTATIONS 20 points

The 4-5-page INDIVIDUAL STUDENT PAPERS cover each student's assigned presentation. Each group member is responsible to submit a 4-5 page critical paper (10pts) and an additional 2-page endnotes and annotated bibliography (10pts) for their paper. This will be compiled into one group paper. There is a separate grade for each student's paper. THERE IS NO GROUP GRADE. You will have several opportunities to pose questions when I meet with each group on Week 12 in my 4318 Turlington Hall office.

III. ATTENDANCE

The only excusable absence is one that results from an illness that is documented by a written and signed physician report. Two non-excused absences lower the student's cumulative grade by minus 10 points, Three non-excused absences give the student an E, a failing grade for the course.

IV. LATE WORK

All written work and oral presentations are due during the class period. Students receive minus 2 points for EACH DAY (INCLUDING WEEKENDS AND HOLIDAYS) when any assignment is late. NOTE: A medical excuse will not be accepted to explain the late delivery of any written assignment or film/video project.
