Course Description

As an introduction to film studies, ENG 2300 teaches students how to analyze rather than merely summarize a film, engaging style and poetics. Thus, the course should provide a working knowledge of film form and film vocabulary (for example, the distinction between a dissolve and a wipe; a long take and a long shot). ENG 2300 introduces and develops these analytic tools in the context of film history and film theory. It is not a “film appreciation” course. Having completed this course, a student should have a sense of film form (poetics), a general outline of film history, and some critical/theoretical perspectives for analyzing film. In the Film Studies program, the film history sequence is intended to follow ENG 2300 (ENG 3121, 3122, and 3123). ENG 3115 a more in-depth treatment of film theory.

General Education Objectives

- This course confers General Education credit for either Composition (C) or Humanities (H). This course also fulfills 6,000 of the university’s 24,000-word writing requirement (WR).
- Composition courses provide instruction in the methods and conventions of standard written English (grammar, punctuation, usage), as well as the techniques that produce effective texts. Composition courses are writing intensive. They require multiple drafts submitted to your instructor for feedback before final submission.
- Course content should include multiple forms of effective writing, different writing styles, approaches and formats, and methods to adapt writing to different audiences, purposes and contexts. Students should learn to organize complex arguments in writing using thesis statements, claims and evidence, and to analyze writing for errors in logic.
- The University Writing Requirement (WR) ensures students both maintain their fluency in writing and use writing as a tool to facilitate learning. To receive Writing Requirement credit, a student must receive a grade of C or higher and a satisfactory completion of the writing component of the course. This means that written assignments must meet minimum word requirements totaling 6000 words.

General Education Learning Outcomes

At the end of this course, students will be expected to have achieved the following learning outcomes in content, communication and critical thinking:

- Content: Students demonstrate competence in the terminology, concepts, theories and methodologies used within the academic discipline.
- Communication: Students communicate knowledge, ideas and reasoning clearly and effectively in written and oral forms appropriate to the discipline. Students will participate in class discussions throughout the semester to reflect on assigned readings.
- Critical Thinking: Students analyze information carefully and logically from multiple perspectives, using discipline-specific methods, and develop reasoned solutions to problems.

Required Text

Corrigan, Timothy, and Patricia White. The Film Experience, 5th Edition. Boston: Bedford/St. Martin's, 2012.

Assignments

Participation and Film Responses (1400 words, 100 POINTS)

Note: Being present in the class is more than just sitting at your desk. I expect students to be active participants in the class discussion. Asking questions is also important. We all learn from each other. The more we converse, the more we will all learn.

**Film Responses: Students must post a reaction to the film screened in the evening before the next day's class. This should not be merely a summary of the film or your opinion of the film. Use this space to raise questions or put forth an interpretive argument. You must do these for at least 7 of the films we watch in class. The response should be 200 words.

Formal Aspects Responses (1000 words, 200 POINTS)

During weeks 1-3, you will write two 500-word responses to two of the four formal aspect films we screen in class (The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari, Days of Heaven, Cleo from 5 to 7, and Vivre sa vie). Your response must focus on the particular formal aspect discussed in relation to the film in class (editing, mise-en-scène, cinematography, or sound). Describe and interpret the technique and function of the formal aspect by focusing on a single scene. These short responses must be written before class the Friday after the Tuesday screenings. To receive full credit, these responses should have a clear thesis and supporting examples.

Essay 1: Short Analysis (1200 words, 300 POINTS)

In this essay you will analyze a film in its entirety, paying particular attention to its overall narrative structure and how it achieves its effects through filmic language. It is not a plot summary: you will not be discussing what happens, but how it happens. A full assignment sheet will be available on Canvas.

Essay 2: Prospectus (250 words, 25 POINTS)

This assignment is a proposal for Essay 3. Include the topic and your proposed argument as well as potential sources. A full assignment sheet will be available on Canvas.

Essay 2: Research Paper (2200 words, 375 POINTS)

This essay is a researched argument about a film topic of your choice. You will make a single, focused argument backed up by research and your own close analysis of the film(s) you are writing about. I will ask you to submit a short proposal. A full assignment sheet will be available on Canvas.

Course Policies

1. You must complete all assignments to receive credit for this course.

2. Attendance

- If you miss more than 5 class periods, you will fail the course. Screenings count as a class period.
- Each absence beyond 3 will lower your final grade by half a letter.
- If you have to miss a screening, please contact me ahead of time so other arrangements can be made.
- 3 times late to class equals 1 absence.
- Only absences involving documented medical issues, religious holidays, or university-sponsored events, such as athletics or band, are exempt.
- Absence does not excuse late material.
- When absent from class, it is your responsibility to make yourself aware of all due dates and to hand assignments in on time. In-class activities and quizzes may not be made-up, unless the absence is exempt.

3. Screenings: no talking or cell phone use during screenings. Cell phone use will result in being marked absent for the period. You are expected to take notes during each screening. Your notes will be your launching point and guide for class discussion, response essays, and analyses.

4. Paper Format & Submission: ALL assignments should be submitted as a Microsoft Word document. Electronic copies of written assignments must be submitted via the "Assignments" page on the e-learning Canvas site by the assigned due date. Hard copies are not required, with the exception of drafts that we peer review in class. Unless otherwise stated, every written assignment should use MLA formatting as follows: Times New Roman 12-point font; double-spacing; 1" margins on all sides; a heading with your name, the instructor's name, course title, and date in upper left corner of first page, and a header with your last name and the page number on the top right of every page.

5. Late Papers/Assignments: Late work will receive a 10% deduction for each day that it is late. If the assignment is over a week late, it will receive a 0. I will consider requests for due date extensions, but they must be made at least 48 hours in advance of the assignment's original due date.

6. Paper Maintenance Responsibilities. Keep duplicate copies of all work submitted in this course. Save all returned, graded work until the semester is over.

7. Communicating with your instructor: The best way to contact me is via email. Please allow at least 24 hours for me to respond to all requests/questions/inquiries by email. If you cannot visit me during office hours, contact me to schedule an appointment time.
8. Academic Honesty and Definition of Plagiarism. Plagiarism violates the Student Honor Code and requires reporting to the Dean of Students. All students must abide by the Student Honor Code: <https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>.
9. Students with disabilities who are requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/), which will provide appropriate documentation to give the instructor.
10. For information on UF Grading policies, see: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx>
11. Grade Appeals. In 1000- and 2000-level courses, students may appeal a final grade by filling out a form available from Carla Blount, Program Assistant, in the Department office (4008 TUR). Grade appeals may result in a higher, unchanged, or lower final grade.
12. Course Evaluations. Toward the end of the semester, you will receive email messages asking you to go online and evaluate this course: <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/evals/Default.aspx>
13. Students who face difficulties completing the course or who are in need of counseling or urgent help may call the on-campus Counseling and Wellness Center (352) 392-1575, or contact them online: <http://www.counseling.ufl.edu/cwc/Default.aspx>
14. Classroom behavior: NO LAPTOPS will be allowed in class unless required for group or individual activities. All cell phones and other hand-held devices must be silenced during class. Cell phone use will result in dismissal from class and an absence for the class period. Because the class is discussion-based whenever possible, conflicting viewpoints may often arise. Please keep in mind that students come from diverse cultural, economic, and ethnic backgrounds. Some of the films and texts we will discuss and write about engage controversial topics and opinions.
15. UF's policy on Harassment: UF provides an educational and working environment that is free from sex discrimination and sexual harassment for its students, staff, and faculty: <http://hr.ufl.edu/manager-resources/recruitment-staffing/institutional-equity-diversity/resources/harassment/>

Grading Criteria

- If any assignment illustrates complete disregard for spelling, grammar, citations, or does not meet the word count requirement, it will be failed.
- Grading criteria change depending on the specific assignment. Please consult assignment sheets, the syllabus, and class instructions for this information.
- Each assignment is designed to build on previous assignments as a way to move you toward a well-developed Film Analysis + Research at the conclusion of the semester. - Revision is a must. It is important to continually rework your writing as I advise you and as you see fit. This includes both your larger ideas (argument/analytical claim or point) and your sentence-level constructions.
- Students who show personal investment in the material and a dedication to their own growth will succeed.
