This course explores autobiography, memoir, and autobiographical fiction produced by LGBTQ writers in the post-Stonewall United States. Because queer self-fashioning has, historically, very often occurred within hostile and/or uncomprehending environments, we will seek to contextualize our readings not only in relation to the literary tradition of life writing, but also in connection to the theoretical and historical frameworks of specifically queer self-invention and representation.

Course policies
Papers and homework are due no later than the beginning of the class period on the designated date; late submissions will not be accepted without documentation of an acceptable (typically medical) excuse. For your own protection, you are required to make and keep an extra copy of work submitted. Please also retain notes and drafts for the formal papers; you may be required to submit these upon request. All work noted on the syllabus or assigned in class is required unless changes are explicitly stipulated. Any changes to the syllabus will be announced; it is the student's responsibility to keep informed of any such changes. Students are responsible for all material covered and work assigned during any absence, excused or unexcused. Any form of cheating, including plagiarism, will result in a failing grade in the course and an official report filed with the university. It is expected that you will be familiar with the University’s policies on scholastic dishonesty. If you have any questions or concerns, please inform me ASAP. Attendance is expected and will be recorded; absences will adversely affect your grade. Because the readings assigned in this class discuss the diverse real-life experiences of various LGBTQ-identified individuals, they often address sensitive topics such as sex, violence, sexual violence, racism, and racist violence. Students who have concerns about engaging such material are strongly encouraged to consult with the professor before committing to the course.

Course requirements and grade computation

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Requirement</th>
<th>Weight</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Attendance and informed participation</td>
<td>20%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reading responses, homework, and quizzes</td>
<td>20%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Presentation and associated writing assignments</td>
<td>20%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Required Texts

- Gloria Anzaldúa, Borderlands/La Fronter
- Alison Bechdel, Fun Home
- Jennifer Finney Boylan, She ’s Not There
- Rita Mae Brown, Ruby fruit Jungle
- Howard Cruse, Stuck Rubber Baby
- Feslie Feinberg, Stone Butch Blues
- Audre Forde, Zami
- Maggie Nelson, The Argonauts
- Sarah Schulman, People in Trouble
- Mab Segrest, Memoir of a Race Traitor
- Justin Torres, We the Animals
- David Wojnarowicz, Close to the Knives

Information on current UF grading policies and the assignment of grade points is available at https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx
SCHEDULE OF ASSIGNMENTS (Please complete assigned reading before class meets on that day.)

January 5  Introduction to the course
January 7  Samuel Delany, “Sentences: an Introduction” (Motion of Light pp 3-16); Alison Bechdel, “The Wonderful World of Me”; Sarah Schulman, “My Life as an American Artist”
January 12  Samuel Delany, The Motion of Light in Water, 17-113
January 14  Michael Warner, “Public and Private” (from Publics and Counterpublics)
January 19  Delany, The Motion of Light in Water, 200-295
January 21  Delany, The Motion of Light in Water, 339-363; Group #1 presentations
            Jay Prosser, “Mirror Images: Transsexuality & Autobiography”
January 26  Feinberg, Stone Butch Blues, 5-153
January 28  Audre Lorde, Zami, 7-103
February 2   Lorde, Zami, 103-256; Group #3 presentations
February 4   Gloria Anzaldúa, Borderlands/La Frontera
February 9   Gloria Anzaldúa, Borderlands/La Frontera, Group #4 presentations
February 11  J. Halberstam, “Queer Temporality & Postmodern Geographies”
February 18  Rita Mae Brown, Rubyfruit Jungle
February 23  PAPER #1 DUE; screening: Paris Is Burning
            Cherrie Moraga, “Long Line of Vendidas”

FEBRUARY 27 - MARCH 6 SPRING BREAK CLASSES DO NOT MEET

March 8       Mab Segrest, Memoir of a Race Traitor
March 10      Mab Segrest, Memoir of a Race Traitor, Group #5 (Cruse, Brown, Segrest)
March 15      Sarah Schulman, People in Trouble
March 17      Schulman, People in Trouble, Group #6 presentations
March 22      David Wojnarowicz, Close to the Knives
March 24      Wojnarowicz, Close to the Knives, Group #7 presentations
March 29      Jennifer Finney Boylan, She’s Not There
March 31      Boylan, She’s Not There
April 5       Alison Bechdel, Fun Home
April 7       Bechdel, Fun Home, Group #8 presentations
April 12      Maggie Nelson, The Argonauts
April 14      Justin Torres, We the Animals
April 19      Paper #2 DUE; closing discussion